Affirming God’s Command, Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted.

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you.

And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

I have decided to follow Jesus,
I have decided to follow Jesus,
I have decided to follow Jesus,
No turning back, no turning back.

Tho none go with me I still will follow,
Tho none go with me I still will follow,
Tho none go with me I still will follow,
No turning back, no turning back.

My cross I’ll carry till I see Jesus,
My cross I’ll carry till I see Jesus,
My cross I’ll carry till I see Jesus,
No turning back, no turning back.

The Significance of This Baptismal Service

In Baptist heritage and tradition, baptism, as taught by God’s Word, is a public confession of one’s personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Thus, only one old enough to personally profess faith can be baptized scripturally. As such it must be by immersion of candidates in water and be administered by an ordained minister acting under the authorization of a local congregation. As one of the two church ordinances commanded by Jesus to His followers, baptism pictures the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ as the basis of one’s hope of salvation. Additionally it symbolizes to the individual death to the old life, the laying aside of that life in burial, and the spiritual resurrection to new life in Christ. With one’s baptism as a profession of faith in Christ, membership in a local congregation then is granted by the church.

Linda and Henry thus confess their faith in Christ as Savior and Lord in this service. We, the members of the International Baptist Convention church of Cologne, welcome Linda and Henry into full membership in our church on the basis of their baptism. We pledge to them our prayers, encouragement and support as they seek to serve Christ through the ministries of our congregation.

Scripture Reading for Henry:

by
Bro. Juan Arroyo

Rom. 12:9

Text to be read:

Henry, today you profess faith in Christ through your baptism. You have chosen Romans 12:9 as the scripture text that you want to live by in your service to the Lord.

Hear then what God says to you through His Word.

“Your love must be real. Hate what is evil, and hold on to what is good.”

Henry, may God help you live by this teaching so that He can bless your service to Him.

Scripture Reading for Linda:

by
Sister Joyce Auko

Phil. 4:6

Text to be read:

Linda, today you profess faith in Christ through your baptism. You have chosen Philippians 4:6 as the scripture text that you want to live by in your service to the Lord.

Hear then what God says to you through His Word.

“Don’t worry about anything, but in all your prayers ask God for what you need, always asking him with a thankful heart.”

Linda, may God help you live by this teaching so that He can bless your service to Him.
