

WELCOME

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST SESSION FOUR

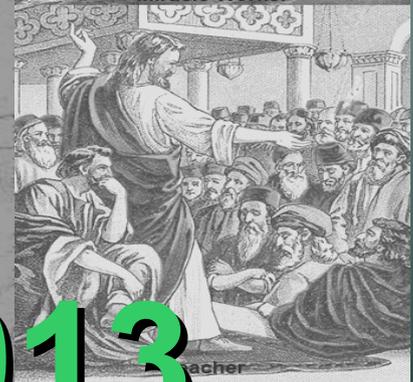

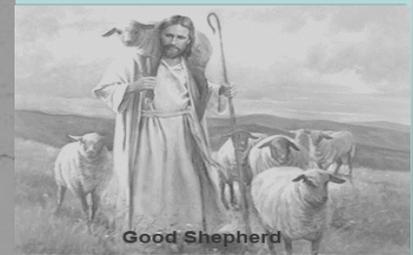

INTERLAKEN 2013

Led by

Dr. Lorin L. Cranford

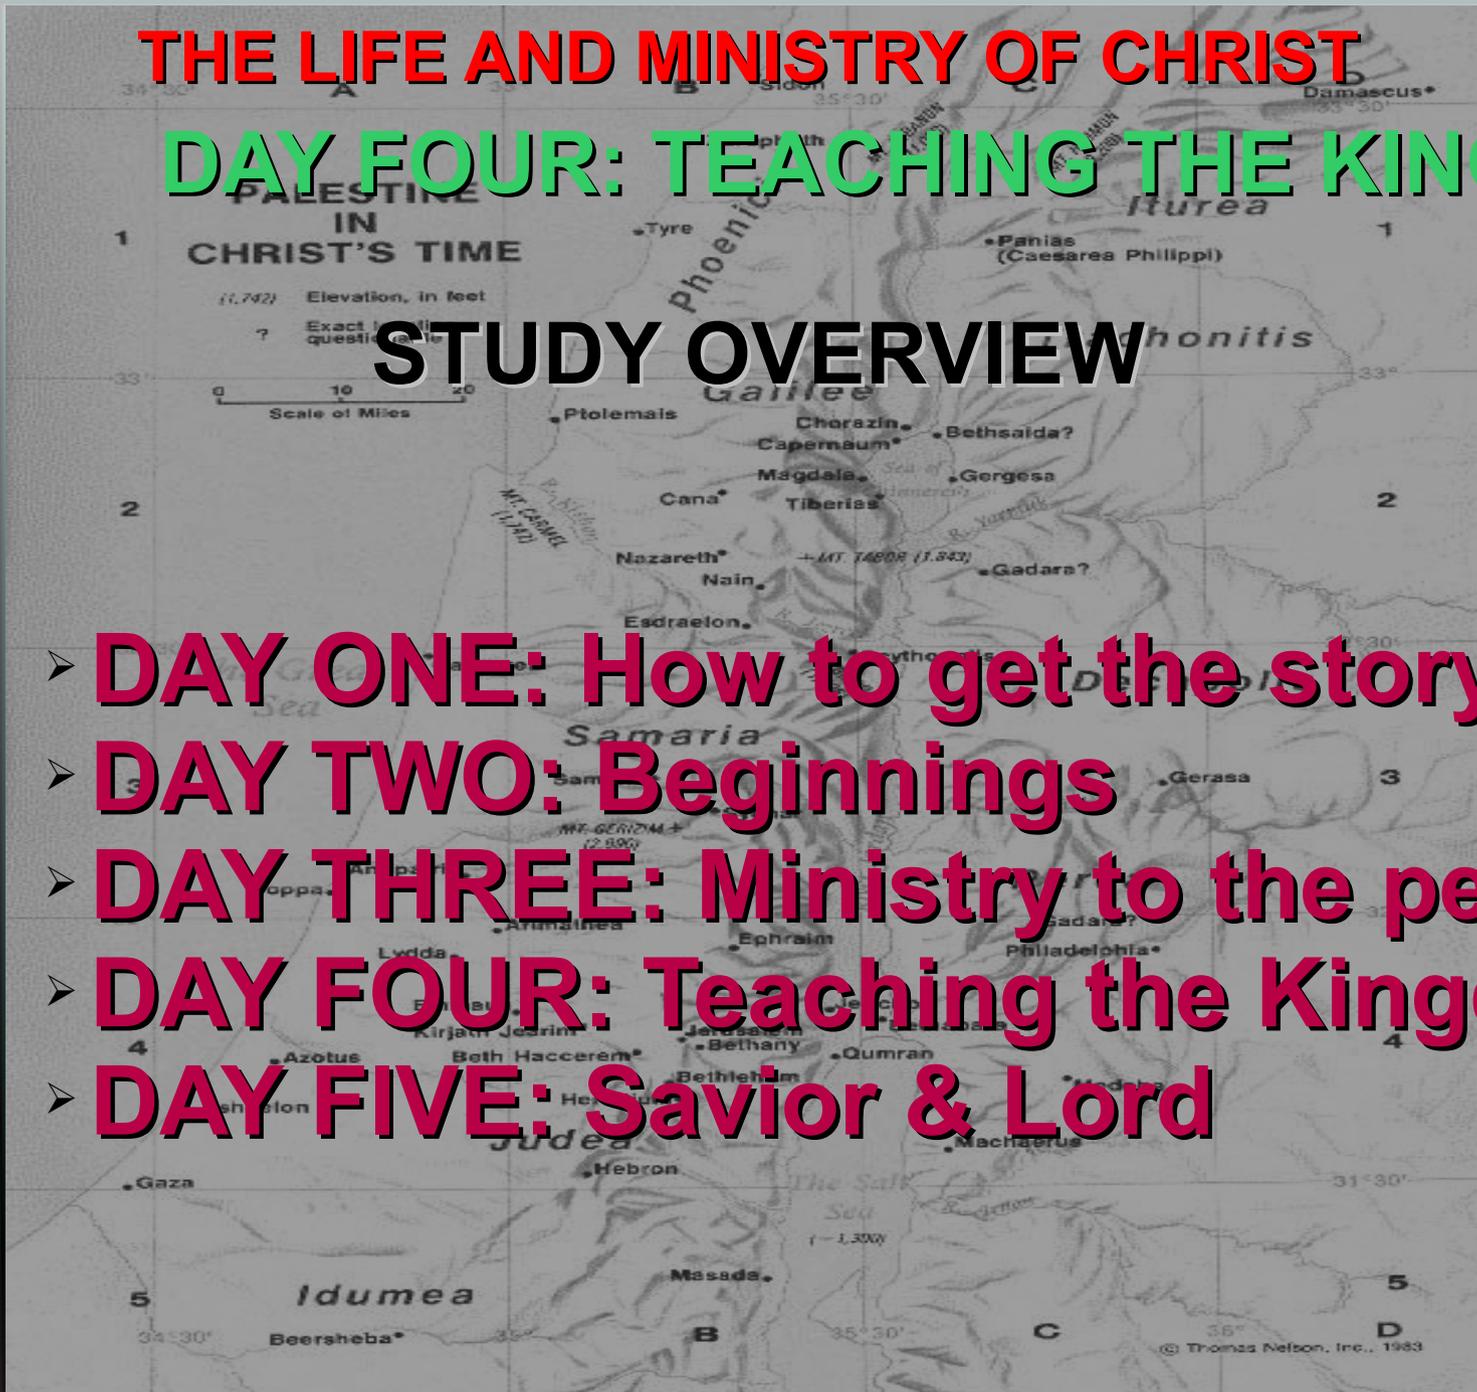

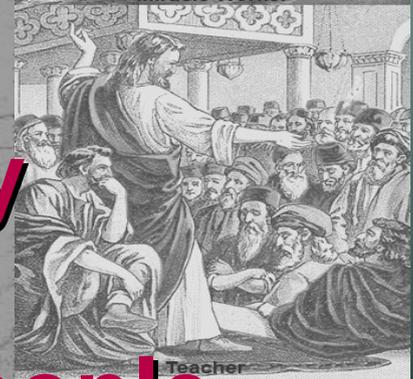

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

STUDY OVERVIEW

- DAY ONE: How to get the story
- DAY TWO: Beginnings
- DAY THREE: Ministry to the people
- DAY FOUR: Teaching the Kingdom
- DAY FIVE: Savior & Lord

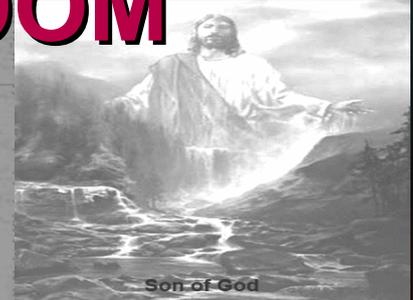

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

STUDY OVERVIEW:

Teaching the Kingdom

- TERMINOLOGY OF THE KINGDOM
- THE SETTING FOR JESUS' TEACHING
- THE ESSENTIAL IDEA OF THE KINGDOM
- IMPLICATIONS OF THE KINGDOM

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

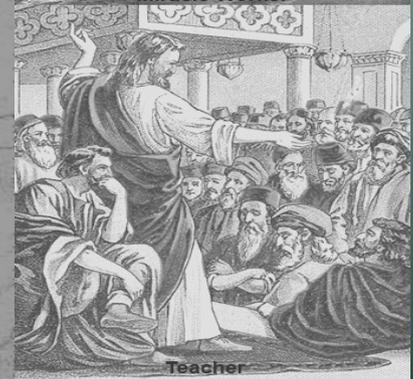

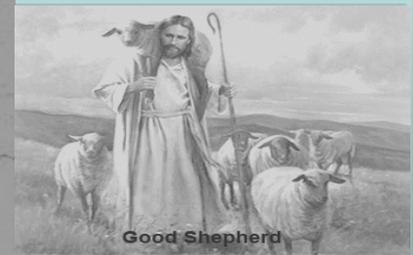

TERMINOLOGY OF THE KINGDOM

GOSPEL SOURCES:

- Mark
- Luke
- John
- Matthew

EARLY CHRISTIANITY

- Remainder of the New Testament
- Early Christian writings

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

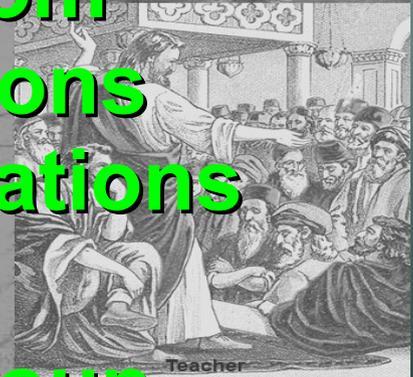

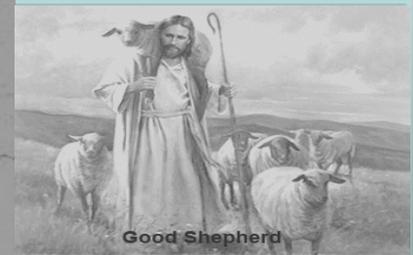

THE SETTING FOR JESUS' TEACHING

Jewish setting:

- Old Testament ideas of the kingdom
- Inter-testament Jewish modifications
- Connections to Messianic expectations

Greco-Roman setting:

- Inner connections of the word group
- Focus on βασιλεύς

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

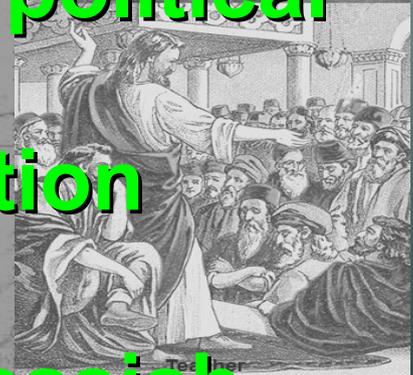

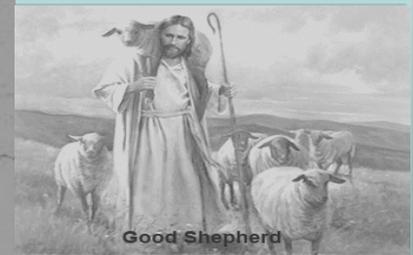

THE ESSENTIAL IDEA OF THE KINGDOM

Kingdom qualities:

- Kingdom as spiritual, rather than political
- Kingdom now and in the future
- Kingdom as realm of God's salvation

Kingdom and Christ:

- Linkage of the kingdom to the Messiah
- Realm where God reigns supreme

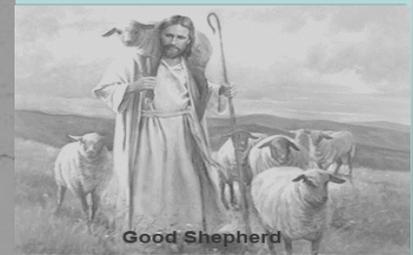

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

IMPLICATIONS OF THE KINGDOM

- Being in the Kingdom means relationships
- Being in the Kingdom changes living
- Being in the Kingdom provides hope

THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF CHRIST

DAY FOUR: TEACHING THE KINGDOM

¡Muchas Gracias
por venir a este cuarto período de sesiones del estudio!

Lorin L Cranford

